

Academic Year 2022-2023

1. The Public Relations Cell of SBM, Bengaluru organized 10th edition of TEDxNMIMSBangalore on 5th March 2023 to explore new aspirations, learnings, and ideas. This edition was centered around the theme of 'Unfold the Manifold'™, which dealt with unravelling the stratified levels in the library of life's experiences while exploring everything, layer by layer. The talented speakers were from various domains who shared their ideologies and perspectives based on their rich experience and expertise.
2. Tarunya The Cultural Committee of School of Law, NMIMS, Bengaluru organised :
 - a. Rubaroo (Talent Hunt) on 3rd September, 2022 to warmly welcome the 2022-2027 batch, providing participants with a platform to exhibit their skills while also providing an opportunity to mingle with students from previous cohorts. The event was done in collaboration with the sports committee of the School of law i.e. Zenith. The event featured both athletic activities and cultural demonstrations for attendees to enjoy.
 - b. ONAM on 8th September 2022 a festival to continue the tradition by decking up in ethnic wear. This not only helped the students embrace the different cultural aspects of the festival but also made them bond over the mutual festivity that Onam carries. A beautiful rangoli art was made from flowers since this has been practiced by families celebrating Onam and is considered a sign of respect.
 - c. Halloween on 15th October 2022 to mark the spookiest time of the year. A costume party was organized and everyone in the law school showed up dressed as their favourite terrifying fictional characters. The creativity level of law school was on full display. The celebration included a musical night/ensemble in which a reputable artist was invited, along with a number of fillers that kept the audience entertained and made them leave with a memorable time on campus.
 - d. Lohri was celebrated on 13th January 2023, both boys and girls were dressed in stunning traditional attire, with the lads sporting a Punjabi Munda style while the girls were adorned with beautiful traditional jewellery. The dhols were the highlight of the event, causing the entire university to dance their hearts out. There were also dance performances, which everyone enjoyed. The energy level was extremely high, and the event concluded on a positive note.
3. Zenith, the Sports Committee of School of Law, Bengaluru plays a pivotal role in promoting a sporting culture within Law School by organizing various events related to sports and gaming.
